

Webster's online dictionary defines generosity as the trait of being willing to give your money or time; unselfishness.

Generous is the first word that comes to mind when I think of Sam and Tricia Massey. I have been a member of Agent's Marketing Group for 4 years now and have had the great fortune of spending time with the Massey's. They frequently open their house, provide meals and pamper their agents. I have been blessed to attend numerous "kick offs", advanced sales meetings and prospecting meetings. Additionally, my wife Jamie and I have attended the Massey Golf Classic, the Leader's trip to Amelia Island, a day trip to the house boat and dinner at Chateau Élan. Most recently Jamie and I attended the Leader's trip to Boston. We were constant recipients of the Massey generosity from the time we arrived at Boston's Logan International Airport to the time we boarded the plane for Atlanta four days later. Upon arrival an AMG representative met us at the airport and made arrangements to get us to the beautiful and historical Boston Park Plaza where we linked up with other agents and spent time taking in the sights, sounds and food of Boston's famous Newberry Street. We had a very enjoyable dinner that night at Legal Sea Foods and returned to our room to find a very special gift from the local area (the mysterious gifts continued every night throughout the trip). The Massey's arranged for a private tour of the field and dinner on the "Green Monster" at Fenway Park prior to a game with Tampa Bay. We were the benefactors of a Duck boat tour of Boston that occurred on both the surface streets and in the Charles River followed up by an incredible Italian dinner in Boston's North End.

Jamie and I completely enjoyed our time in the beautiful and historic city of Boston and we are already looking forward to Charleston, SC next year. Hope to see you there.

Thank you Sam, Tricia and staff!!
